preached from the words, "By His stripes we are healed."

The sermon was powerful, orthodox and full of interest. After the sermon the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to 250 communicants.

At 1:30 r. M. the children held their last service, and had a glorious time.

Rev. Geo. E. Hite lead the service, and, as a grand finale, the whole assembly formed a procession and marched around the ground singing. Glorious was the aight to watch the enthusiasm that the children displayed in their service, and all who participated will never forget this, "the childrens' last service." At 3:30 r. M. Dr. Hammond preached a good sermon from the words, "Men loved darkness rather than light."

Rev! Ryan closed the exercises in an appropriate way, and, as a fitting token of the final closing, a procession was formed and a general march taken up around the ground to soul-inspiring songs. General good feeling prevailed, and a hearty farewell finished the closing of Mounsdaville campmesting for 1881. THE Committee on Fire Department met last evening, and Mr. Howard, the archi-tect, submitted a new plan for the Island hose house, which will probably be acted upon at the next meeting of Council. wrist. Conners was rather clerically dreased in black broadcloth, with a white cravat and atanding collar, which, with his clean shaven face, gave him quite a prisetly appearance.

Mr. Simpson narrated the 'story of the burglary, and positively identified Conners as the man whom he saw jump out of his window. He had a good and deliberate look, and could not be mistaken. His daughter, Mrs. Troll, who had been awakened by the movements of the burglar in her room, and had a fair sight of his face, was equally sure that Conners was the man. George McGinley, a lamp lighter, and an acquaintance of Conners, told of seeing Conners and another man running up. Fitteenth street as if coming from Mr. Simpson's, about the time of the burglarity. He recognized Conners, and spoke to him, and knew he could not be mistaken. Two other witnesses told of seeing Conners and a second party in the vicinity on the same morning, and Perry Tracy, night roundsman, told of seeing him at Heller's seloon some time before the burglary. No show of a defense was offered, although Colonel Arnett attempted to weaken the witnesses' conviction as to Conner's and entity, without effect. He intimated that an attempt would be made to establish an allbi, but the Justice declined to allow the case to remain open till to-day, and the defense not caring to examine their witnesses, who were present, Conners was recognized to Court in $2,000 bonds, and was remanded to allow the case to remain open till. PITTSBURGH, August 15—River 2 inches below zero, and stationary. Weather clear and pleasant. Educated Women, Refined and educated women, will some-times suffer in silence for years from kidney diseases, or constipation and piles, which could easily be cured by a package of Kidney-Work. There is hardly a woman to be found that does not at some time suffer from some of the dis-eases for which this great remedy is a meetile. It is put np in liquid and dry forms, equally efficient.—Springfield Union.

Sympathy Expressed for Garfield-Other Business. SARATOGA, August 18.—At the meeting of the American Bar Association to-day, James O. Brodhead, of Missouri, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved. That this Association regard it to be their duty publicly to express their deep sympathy with the President, his family, and the nation, in the great sorrow through which they are now passing; their horror at the crime which has plunged the nation into grief, and their sarnest hope and prayer in common with their fellow clisens of every name that the President may soon be restored to health and usefulness.

The resolution was sent by telegraph to the President's family and the Secretary of State.
